Poems for Peace by Philip Metres | Poetry Foundation

Imagine a journey... It starts where the journey of our yesterdays left us. A journey beyond the clouds, beyond the spill and pain of life; Beyond the spoils of labour and our temporary smiles. We are lifted into windless heights and forget ourselves for a moment in eternal time. It is a familiar sound. Listen, listen.

Journey Into Peace - Animesh

Introduction Most people go through life accepting that the continuous mental chatter they endure daily is natural. Believing this is the natural state of our mind, which it is not, prevents us from finding peace of mind. This poem takes us on a journey into how meditation transforms our busy mind into a peaceful mind.

A Poetic Journey Into Peace And LOVE: Living In Heaven On ...

Peace is not defined by an absence of war, but it is an energy field. * * * A voice from the dark called out, "The poets must give us imagination of peace, to oust the intense, familiar imagination of disaster. Peace, not only the absence of war." But peace, like a poem, is not there ahead of itself, can't be imagined before it is made,

I Lettered Echo: September 2010

Journey Into The Interior - Poem by Theodore Roethke. In the long journey out of the self, There are many detours, washed-out interrupted raw places. Where the shale slides dangerously. And the back wheels hang almost over the edge. At the sudden veering, the moment of turning. Better to hug close, wary of rubble and falling stones.
