Christian Ethics in Contemporary Society. What is Ethics? Ethics is a systematic reflection upon human actions, institutions and characters. It is concerned with what is morally good or bad, right or wrong, correct or incorrect, valid or invalid. It deals with what people ought to do. It judges human conduct, action and behaviour on their levels of goodness or badness.

Ethics Vs. Morals From the Christian Perspective | Synonym

The ultimate basis for Christian ethics is the moral character of God. God delights in his own moral character, which is supremely good, unchanging, and eternal. His moral standards for human beings flow from his moral character, and therefore they apply to all people in all cultures for all of history (although the Bible also contains many temporary commands intended only for specific people ...
