At first, she responded to every setback with praise, reassuring friends of God's goodness. Yet as her residence in the hospital became seemingly permanent, and as the simple stuff of life — walking, cleaning herself, conversing without gasping for breath — impossible to complete, the sinews of her faith started to fray.

The Chaplet of Divine Mercy - From "My Catholic Life!"

God in Christianity is the eternal being who created and preserves all things. Christians believe God to be both transcendent (wholly independent of, and removed from, the material universe) and immanent (involved in the world). Christian teachings of the immanence and involvement of God and his love for humanity exclude the belief that God is of the same substance as the created universe but ...

That we should establish ourselves in a sense of GOD's Presence, by continually conversing with Him. That it was a shameful thing to quit His conversation, to think of trifles and fooleries. That we should feed and nourish our souls with high notions of GOD; which would yield us great joy in being devoted to Him.

Rejection of the truth revealed in this beautiful title of Mary has led to a diminution in the understanding and role of Mary, impeding some Christians from grasping a deeper truth concerning the meaning of Mary's life - her Fiat, her "Yes" to God's Will. It is a privation, leading to a reduced understanding of the call to every Christian to live our lives for God as Mary did.

God in Christianity - Wikipedia

In Christology, the Logos (Greek: Λόγος, lit. 'word, discourse, or reason') is a name or title of Jesus Christ, seen as the pre-existent second person of the Trinity. The concept derives from John 1:1, which in the Douay-Rheims, King James, New International, and other versions of the Bible, reads: . In the beginning was the Word, and the Word was with God, and the Word was God.

limits prayer to human speech godward.

There is no indication in Scripture that animals pray to God. The biblical writers did not describe angelic speech to God as prayer, though it may be.

Furthermore the word always refers to our words to God and never to His words to us. The Bible does not use the term "prayer" to describe divine human

The soul, illuminated by a ray of God's powerful final grace, turns to God in the last moment with such a power of love
that, in an instant, it receives from God absolution of sins and remission of punishment, while outwardly it shows no sign either of repentance or of contrition, because souls [at that stage]
no longer react to external things.
