Review: Fat Cat by Robin Brande - Mrs. ReaderPants

After seeing the five gleaming golden stars that Fat Cat has on Amazon, I knew this book was a must read. Yet upon finishing Fat Cat, mixed feelings for this novel raced through my mind. This book is like a chunk of granite, embedded with both pretty and ugly flakes of other rock.

Fat Cat Book Review - Common Sense Media

Fat Cat by Robin Brande I thought Robin Brande's debut young adult novel, Evolution, Me, and Other Freaks of Nature, was outstanding, but her second book, Fat Cat, hit me in the heart. The Arizona author writes a unique combination of science, teen angst, and positive changes.

Fat Cat Quotes by Robin Brande - Goodreads

Brande definitely does not come across as fat-shaming Cat, which I think is the most important thing. Cat's got a really great voice. She's funny and a little judgmental. She's also inquisitive and set in her ways.

Fat Cat: Robin Brande: 9780440240334: Amazon.com: Books

Fat Cat is a fat girl's cinderella story - the incredibly fictional account of how one science-oriented young woman lost a ton of weight, became incredibly hot, and dated half the swim team in her personal quest to get her one true love to admit he's a tool and fall in love with her.

Robin Brande is an award-winning author, martial artist, teacher, lawyer, entrepreneur, and wilderness medic. Her young adult novels have been named Best Fiction for Young Adults by the American Library Association. She writes action adventure, fantasy, science fiction, young adult, mystery, romance, and nonfiction.

Fat Cat by Robin Brande Book Reviews

I got a galley for Fat Cat by Robin Brande ages ago at a Random House preview and, I have to admit, I sort of tossed it aside. To be even more honest, I dismissed it as a "weight loss" book - or, worse, a "fat girl" book - which just didn't sound interesting to me.

The Smarty Owl: Fat Cat by Robin Brande

Brilliance like this unfortunately still rarely exists in YA lit, and it's a real shame, because YA lit needs more authors like Robin Brande. FAT CAT is funny, wise, super-intelligent, and heart-stoppingly romantic. It's the kind of book that makes you smile weeks after reading it as you remember why you still enjoy and read YA contemporary realistic fiction.

Fat Cat by Robin Brande - Goodreads

Fat Cat is Robin Brande's 2nd novel that I have read. the first being Evolution, Me and other freaks of nature. I absolutely loved Evolution, and I knew I would like Fat Cat as well. Fat Cat had well developed characters, good writing, and was an overall good book. Cat started out as a smart, fat, and shy girl with no boyfriend at all.
