Part 1: The Origin Story If there's one thing recruiters and hiring managers love seeing in a candidate, it's passion. So rather than just telling them that you're interested in your field, start your career story by telling them why you're interested in the field, and how that interest came to be.

How to Tell a Great Story - Harvard Business Review via GIPHY. Color shows a character's journey. In this year's Best Picture Oscar winner, Moonlight, director Barry Jenkins tells the story of a boy named Chiron growing up in a rough neighborhood and wrestling with his identity amid the crack epidemic and extreme bullying. While sharing this difficult story, Jenkins also wanted to capture the "magic of Miami," the city where he grew up.
