The tactic didn't work as the pair of Nawaz and Mohammad Rizwan just kept hitting Hardik and Chahal's poor run didn't help India's cause. Chahal, who went wicketless in the first two games, did get his first of the tournament on Sunday, however, he gave away 43 runs in his four overs and the Men in Blue might seek a change in the combination against Sri Lanka.

These teams present large challenges in intercultural communication. These challenges include scheduling meetings for workers across many time zones and dealing with cultural and language differences. Even when employees have good language skills, they naturally interpret written and verbal communication through the filter of their own culture.
