Fear Park: The First Scream or "Don't Give Teenagers Hatchets" While reading the first book in the mini-series "Fear Park" I came to realize I remembered this book to a frightening degree. Frightening in the sense that it's incredibly gory and scary (frightening, if you will) and in the sense that I could not believe how many details I remembered.

The First Scream Fear Street

Very good book. This is the first book in the Fear Park trilogy and I absolutely loved it. I did find it a little misleading. The books description and cover makes you think there would be more amusement park in the story, but it mostly takes you back in time to 1935, showing the drama (and creepy, gory scenes) of what took place when the park was first in the works.
