The Most Dangerous Game? The idea that man is the most dangerous game is repeated frequently enough that it's accepted as a truism. A seriously annoyed bull elephant would be near the top of anyone's list of dangerous game, but other candidates include insane big-game hunters on desert islands, wounded Cape buffalo, and jealous wives with rifles.

The Most Dangerous Games: FAQ

The Three-Seven-Five is undoubtedly the most popular choice for dangerous game, on any continent, for good reasons. It is a cartridge that can use bullets up to 350 grains, and the recoil of the .375 H&H is mild enough that just about anyone can shoot it with a bit of practice. The classic recipe is a 300-grain slug at 2,550 feet per second ...
