The Pigeon Wants A Puppy
The heart wants what it wants, especially when that heart belongs to Willems's impetuous Pigeon. In his sixth book, the Pigeon tries to convince anyone within earshot that he should have a puppy. Listeners will know it's a bad idea from the get-go, whether they're already familiar with the bird's comic shtick or encountering the character for the first time.

The Pigeon Wants a Puppy! - free PDF, EPUB, FB3, TXT
The Pigeon Wants a Puppy once again presents the loveable pigeon's pleading, bargaining and tantrums; this time for a puppy. Kids will be rolling when they hear him mistaking a puppy for something he'd have to water once a month, and Willems' illustrations again are so evocative, you can't help but read it with full emotion.

The Pigeon Finds a Hot Dog. Read Aloud
In the book, the pigeon wants a puppy and pleads and whines for it. Then he sees the puppy is huge compared to himself and decides he no longer wants it but instead wants a walrus. It's a good jumping off point to talk about how to live with your wants and how it's human nature to always want the next thing.
