The invention of tradition is a concept made prominent in the eponymous 1983 book edited by Eric Hobsbawm and Terence Ranger. In the Introduction, Hobsbawm argues that many "traditions" which "appear or claim to be old are often quite recent in origin and sometimes invented."They distinguish the "invention" of traditions in this sense from "starting" or "initiating" a tradition which does not ...

The postmodern critique of modernity, in Beck's view, is based on mistaken generalizations about a transitional phase in the evolution of modern society. What is needed, he argues, is the reinvention of politics, corresponding to th new demands of a society which remains modern, but which has progressed beyond the earlier form of industrial society.
