Jesus preached and commissioned his apostles to do so. His preaching included two forms of sermon, the missionary and the ministerial (to which correspond the magisterium and the ministerium of the Church), the former to outsiders, the latter to those already part of his movement. Of the latter we have a striking example in the discourse after the Last Supper (John 14-16).

Kim Clement said on Trinity Broadcast Network, "You can be a wrong prophet and not be a false prophet."Why would he have said something so stupid when the Word of God never once says it? Because he had a growing list of failed prophecies and with an acute awareness of his failures to meet the biblical criteria, he made this stupid and unscriptural statement.
