The Shape Of Ancient Thought

The culmination of a long career, The Shape of Ancient Thought, is a stunning work. Dr. McEvelley surveys a magnificent sweep of time and space, from ancient Sumer to classical Greece and beyond to their Roman successors, to the India of Harrappa, to Buddha, Mahavira and Nagarjuna. A work of such scope is a long and difficult read to be sure. Dr.

Mc Evilly, Thomas C. The Shape Of Ancient Thought ...

The Shape of Ancient Thought is "must" reading for anyone interested in the cross-cultural interchange of philosophical thinking between ancient Greece and ancient India. As a long-time student of the "perennial philosophy," it always seemed obvious to me that early Greek philosophy and ancient Indian thought had too much in common for there not to have been a considerable exchange of ideas.
